LAC Summer Workshop Series

The Library Association of China (LAC) kicked off its 2002 summer workshop series of librarians and information professional on May 24 at the NCL. A total of 18 courses will be held during the program, which will be hosted by major libraries and library science departments across Taiwan. The programs on offer this year are listed in the table below:

Sponsor	Course Description
NCL	Publication Preservation: Theory and Practice
	Introductory Course for Information Organizations
	Digital Resources
	Collection Development: Theory and Practice
	Libraries and Local Documents
	Digital Collections and Services
NCL Taiwan Branch	Introductory Library Workshop
Kaohsiung Municipal Library	Library Management
National Taiwan Normal University Library	Digital Library Services and Promotion
Dept. of Library and Information Science, National Taiwan University	Knowledge Management
Institute of Library and Information Science, National Chengchi University	Introductory Library Workshop
National Chung Hsing University Library and Dept. of Library and Information Science	Digital Collections Management
Institute of Health Care & Hospital Administration, National Yang-Ming University	Reader Services and Administration Legal Training

Dept. of Library and Information Science, Tamkang University	XML Technology and Library Applications Multimedia Technology and Library Applications
Shih Hsin University Library and Dept. of Information and Communications Studies	Library Applications of Internet Resources: Website Design and Production Library Applications of Internet Resources: Periodical Cataloging and Management